Connecting Hearts

A Ministry of Chapel Hill
Christian School

Our Heart

Connecting Hearts Ministry is a ministry of Chapel Hill Christian School. Our goal is to enable local families to build relationships and provide for the needs of children in Guatemala in the name of Jesus Christ.

The ministry began in 1994 when students at Chapel Hill Christian School collected offerings to provide a Christian education for three Guatemalan students. Today, more than 80 children from two different areas of Guatemala are receiving an education. Many are attending high schools, trade schools, and universities. In a country where few children attend school past the sixth grade, this is a great blessing!

Although the primary ministry of CHM is to provide a Christian education and share the Gospel, many sponsors also choose to provide food, medicine, or other needs.

Their Heart

Children available for sponsorship have been carefully chosen based upon true needs caused by the circumstances of their lives. Being born in a small village in Central Guatemala can be a seemingly hopeless obstacle to overcome.

Sponsored students and their families are very grateful for the opportunity provided by their sponsors. Because they understand this help is their best opportunity to improve their circumstances, they are enthusiastic about attending school and are dedicated to their studies. They feel a genuine responsibility to demonstrate their appreciation by working hard in school.

Their love for their sponsors lasts a lifetime! Our most frequent request from a sponsored student is for information on how they can pray for their sponsor.

Your Heart

Connecting Hearts Ministry is unique in that it allows families to be closely involved with the children they sponsor. Twice annually (January and July) representatives of CHM travel to Guatemala and meet personally with the sponsored children and their families. This affords an opportunity to exchange letters, gifts, pictures, and details about the life of the child. CHM also welcomes sponsors to accompany them to Guatemala to meet their children.

Your choice to sponsor a child will give you the opportunity to make a lasting difference in the life of a child. They will be presented with the hope that education brings. More importantly, they will be presented with the hope that only comes through a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

"For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me ... I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me." Matthew 25: 35-36, 40
