

Artist's Statement

Choose one:

Oral Presentation

OR

Written Artist's Statement

To share your thoughts, ideas, and process (how you did it)

Please answer the following questions in 1 paragraph each:

- 1.) What is your idea for overcoming apathy in your own life? What is God leading you to do, or who is He leading you to serve? How are you doing it, or going to do it?
- 2.) How did you show your idea in your art? Are you satisfied with the way it came out? Why or why not? What would you change?
- 3.) Describe the process of lino-block printmaking. What steps did you follow to make your prints?

Due Thursday, Feb. 17, 2011 along with finished artwork

Artist's Statement

Choose one:

Oral Presentation

OR

Written Artist's Statement

To share your thoughts, ideas, and process (how you did it)

Please answer the following questions in 1 paragraph each:

- 1.) What is your idea for overcoming apathy in your own life? What is God leading you to do, or who is He leading you to serve? How are you doing it, or going to do it?
- 2.) How did you show your idea in your art? Are you satisfied with the way it came out? Why or why not? What would you change?
- 3.) Describe the process of lino-block printmaking. What steps did you follow to make your prints?

Due Thursday, Feb. 17, 2011 along with finished artwork