CHAPEL HILL CHRISTIAN SCHOOL
Sept. 22, 2009

NORTH CAMPUS
1090 Howe Ave.
Cuyahoga Falls, OH 44221

From the Principal's

The faculty is studying the book Handoff, by Dr. Jeff Myers. In it He discusses the responsibility we have as parents and teachers to mentor the next generation. He makes this statement, "I teach what I know, but I reproduce who I am. I seek genuine influence, not as a burden to carry but as a gift to give away." Wow! This statement stopped me in my tracks. The impact we have on our children is not just about sending them to a good Christian school or a good church. Our kiddos learn more from watching how we live, how we react to situations and others than they do from listening to what we say. Somehow we must make sure our words are consistent with our actions. If the consistency is not there, we become hypocritical. Children see right through that!

The Apostle Paul had this all worked out. In Phil 4:9, he says, "Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me or seen in me – put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you." I pray, pray, pray that what our students learn, receive, hear and see in our lives leads them to a right relationship with Jesus Christ. Here at school we are each asking ourselves the question, "What legacy am I leaving?" We want to be intentional to lead the next generation to the God of peace. I challenge you to do the same.
