

Giving Thanks

I found this past horizon article as I was going through documents on my computer. It served as a great reminder to me, to Give Thanks in all things. Last school year, our theme was Giving Thanks in All We Do! As a staff, we focused daily on being grateful during both good and bad times by writing down all that we were thankful for in gratitude journals.

The following short devotion focuses on gratitude and the fact that all we have is of the Lord.

Ears to hear and eyes to see- both are gifts from the Lord. Proverbs 20:12

Everything you have is a gift from God. The air you breathe, the sunset you enjoy, the rain that nourishes your garden, your work, love of family and friends, your taste buds, your freedom, music, a bird's song, art, the creativity to design. All things are God's and He shares them with you, to bring you pleasure. What are you thankful today? Pause for a moment and thank Him for all his gifts.

*Taken from the book, Everyday Wisdom by Joan C. Webb

What are you grateful for? It could be gratitude for something that happened yesterday, or the sunshine, or even for a great night's sleep. No matter what we are thankful for, we must recognize it as a gift from God. Getting into a routine of being grateful will help us focus on the positive in every situation, and experience joy even on our toughest days. I encourage your family to sit down together and have a time of gratitude. Perhaps, you can practice this exercise with your children at the breakfast table or in the car as you drive to school. It will warm your heart to hear what your little ones are thankful for each day.

Have a great week!
