From the Principal's

Dear CHCS Families,

Everyone likes a bargain! We all like to feel like we are getting a great deal. We want to feel like we are paying less than the actual value of an item or service. I will admit, I enjoy rummage sales, garage sales, estate sales and auctions. I have fallen into the trap of buying a completely useless item for which I have no need simply because the "price was right".

Once in awhile, however, I find that Longaberger basket for 50 cents at a garage sale and somehow it just makes my day. I don't need the basket. I could easily live without the basket, but for 50 cents some powerful urge overtakes me and the next thing I know I am digging in my change purse for two quarters and I walk away with the basket in hand.

We all have things in our lives we don't need. We don't even know how we ended up with them. We collect "stuff". Storage facilities are popping up all over the place so we can store more of our junk. I guess it is nice once in awhile to remember the saying – "The best things in life aren't things." How true. As long as we keep our focus on the important things, I guess it is okay every now and then to go looking for the ultimate bargain.

If you enjoy the search for something you may or may not need, why don't you join us for our 2nd Annual Rummage Sale this Saturday? Just remember to keep everything in focus – things are just things. But if the "thing" is a fantastic deal at our Rummage Sale, look out! I'll try to remember my manners... no pushing, no shoving, etc...

Sincerely, in Christ,
Linda Plum, Principal

A buffet lunch, fantastic golf in both scramble and best-ball format, and an exquisite dinner will complete a full day of fun and fellowship.

Sponsorships are available for golfers and non-golfers, ranging from a $300 hole sponsor to a $2500 president's sponsor. To learn more about how you can be a part of this great event, please call Cathy Cook at 330.926.9817 or e-mail her: ccook@chapelhillchristianschool.org.

Congratulations to Ms. Bailey's first grade class. They had the most participation in Turn Off the TV Week, and will receive an extra recess. Way to go!

Waiting

We've oft' been told that we should simply
Wait upon the Lord;

Why is it that we think this means

That we should just be moored -

Put on hold until we hear

That still, small voice that leads,

Telling us exactly where

It is that we should be?

Consider for a moment that to "wait"

May mean to serve -

To wait on someone frequently

Refers to when we're urged

To look beyond our tidy lives

In order that we may

Show God's love to searching souls

In new, creative ways!

So while we're waiting, we should 'wait'

On those who touch our lives -

Waiting, with a willing heart,

To serve where'er He guides.

- P. Burk
